

B Minor. Attr. Caleb Jarvis Taylor, by 1801.

Arr. Jeremiah Ingalls, 1805 (alto by D. L. Hunter).

1. Al - might-y love, in - spi - re my heart with sa - cred fi - re, And an - i - mate de - si - re my soul to re - new;
 2. There in the blooming Gar - den of E - den, gain'd by pardon, Up - on the banks of Jor - dan, We'll wor - ship the Lamb;

1. Al - might-y love, in - spi - re my heart with sa - cred fi - re, And an - i - mate de - si - re my soul to re - new;
 2. There in the blooming Gar - den of E - den, gain'd by pardon, Up - on the banks of Jor - dan, We'll wor - ship the Lamb;

I love the blessed Je - sus, on whom bright an - gels gaz - es, Where sym - pa - thy in - creas - es a - bove th'eth' - re - al blue.
 We'll sing the song of Mo - ses, while Je - sus sweet com - pos - es A song that nev - er clos - es, in prais - es to his name.

I love the blessed Je - sus, on whom bright an - gels gaz - es, Where sym - pa - thy in - creas - es a - bove th'eth' - re - al blue.
 We'll sing the song of Mo - ses, while Je - sus sweet com - pos - es A song that nev - er clos - es, in prais - es to his name.