

A Minor. Southern Harmony, 1835.Arr. in The Southern Harmony, 1835 (alto by Deidra Montgomery).

1. Ye na-tions all, on you I call, Come, hear this dec - la - ra - tion, And don't re-fuse this glorious news Of Je-sus and sal - va-tion.
 2. His par-ents poor in earth-ly store, To en - ter-tain the stran-ger, They found no bed to lay his head, But in the ox - 's man-ger:

1. Ye na-tions all, on you I call, Come, hear this dec - la - ra - tion, And don't re-fuse this glorious news Of Je-sus and sal - va-tion.
 2. His par-ents poor in earth-ly store, To en - ter-tain the stran-ger, They found no bed to lay his head, But in the ox - 's man-ger:

To roy-al Jews came first the news Of Christ the great Mes-si - ah, As was foretold by proph-ets old, I - sai - ah, Je - re - mi - ah.
 No roy-al things, as used by kings, Were seen by those that found him, But in the hay the stran-ger lay, With swad-dling bands a-round him.

To roy-al Jews came first the news Of Christ the great Mes-si - ah, As was foretold by proph-ets old, I - sai - ah, Je - re - mi - ah.
 No roy-al things, as used by kings, Were seen by those that found him, But in the hay the stran-ger lay, With swad-dling bands a-round him.

