

G Major. Thomas W. Loftin, 1911.

Thomas W. Loftin, 1911.

1. Our lov-ing one has gone to rest, In heav-en now she's ev - er blest; In heav-en now she wait-ing stands To
 2. I can no long - er stay with you, I now must cross o'er Jor-dan's shore; The Sav-ior calls and I must go, Fare-

1. Our lov-ing one has gone to rest, In heav-en now she's ev - er blest; In heav-en now she wait-ing stands To
 2. I can no long - er stay with you, I now must cross o'er Jor-dan's shore; The Sav-ior calls and I must go, Fare-wel-come us to that blest land. O glo-rious thought, we'll meet a-gain, And with the an-gels we will sing; Yes, we will sing.

 well, fare-well to all be - low.

wel-come us to that blest land. O glo-rious thought, we'll meet a-gain, And with the an-gels we will sing; Yes, we will sing.
 well, fare-well to all be - low.