

A Major. John Newton, 1779, alt.

Robert Boyd, 1826.

1. Lord, I am come! thy pro-mise is my plea, With - out thy word I durst not ven - ture nigh;
 2. Be - set with - out, and full of fears and sin, Trem - bling and faint I come to thee for rest;

1. Lord, I am come! thy pro-mise is my plea, With - out thy word I durst not ven - ture nigh;
 2. Be - set with - out, and full of fears and sin, Trem - bling and faint I come to thee for rest;

But thou hast call'd the bur - den'd soul to thee, A wear - y bur - den'd soul, O Lord, am I!
 Be thou my ref - uge, Lord, hide me with - in, I know no force can tear me from thy breast.

But thou hast call'd the bur - den'd soul to thee, A wear - y bur - den'd soul, O Lord, am I!
 Be thou my ref - uge, Lord, hide me with - in, I know no force can tear me from thy breast.