William Billings, 1779.

1. This spa-cious earth is all the Lord's, And men, and worms, and beasts, and birds:

2. But there's a bright - er world on high, Thy pal - ace, Lord, a - bove the sky:

3. Re - joice, ye shin - ing worlds on high, Be - hold the King of glo - ry nigh!

He raised the build - ing on the seas, And gave it for their dwell - ing place.

Who shall as - cend that blest a - bode, And dwell so near his Mak - er God?

Who can this King of glo - ry be? The might - y Lord, the Sav - ior's he.
