

A Minor. Isaac Watts, 1719.

Smith Collection, 1698.

1. Lord, what is man, poor feeble man,      Born of the earth at first?      His life a shadow, light and vain,      Still hast - ing to the dust.

2. O what is fee - ble, dy - ing man,      Or an - y of his race,      That God should make it his concern      To vis - it him with grace?

3. That God who darts his lightnings down,      Who shakes the worlds above,      And mountains tremble at his frown,      How wondrous is his love!

