

A Minor. Harrod's Social and Camp-Meeting Songs, 1817.

Arr. William Walker, 1845 (alto by Rebecca Wright).

1. Ye careless sons of Adam's race, Who long have trod in fol - ly's ways, O turn a - bout to Zi - on's face, And meet Apollyon's forc - es;

2. De - sert the cause of heaven's foe, Before you plunge in end - less woe; Now courage take, to Je - sus go, And he will now receive you.

3. And when our lives are at an end, Our captain still will be our friend, We'll wing our way, and up as - cend, To reign with him in glo - ry.

The breastplate take of righteousness; Your feet be shod with gos - pel peace; Be daily at the throne of grace, And Jesus will support you.

From sin and Sa - tan you'll go free, And happy seasons you shall see And gain the Christian's liberty, For Jesus will support you.

Then all our tears be wip'd away, Our night be turn'd to end - less day, And on our golden harps we'll play The joyful song of heaven.
