G Major. Isaac Watts, 1706.

Allison Blake Steel, 2008.

The musical score consists of three staves of music in G major, common time, with a key signature of one sharp. The first staff uses a treble clef, the second a bass clef, and the third an alto clef. The music is divided into two sections by a repeat sign with 'D.C.' (Da Capo). The lyrics are as follows:

1. The sun and moon proclaim thy pow'r, Their motions speak thy skill,
And on the wings of ev'ry hour We read thy pa - tience still. Part of thy name di-vine-ly stands On all thy crea - tures writ;
D.C. They show the la - bor of thy hands Or im - press of thy feet.

2. Now the full glo - ries of the Lamb A - donn the heav'nly plains,
Sweet cherubs learn Immanuel's name And try their choicest strains. Our thoughts are lost in rev'rend awe, We love and we a - dore,
D.C. The first arch - an - gel nev - er saw So much of God be - fore.

The score concludes with a final section starting with 'D.C.' at the end of the second staff.
