1. I am a poor pilgrim of sorrow, Cast out in this wide world to roam, I've heard of a city called heaven, I'm striv - ing to make it my home.

2. I know I am weak and unworthy, My poor heart is so prone to sin, But Je - sus the Sav - ior al - mighty, Has prom - is'd to soon take me in.

3. When friends and relations forsake me, And trouble rolls round me so high, I think of the kind words of Jesus: Poor pilgrim, I am al - ways nigh.
