

COWLING. C. M.

370

E Minor. Simon Browne, 1720.

P. Dan Brittain, 2011.

1. And now, my soul, an - oth - er year Of my short life is past:

2. De - vout - ly yield thy - self to God, And to his care com - mend:

I can - not long con - tin - ue
And still pur - sue the heav'n - ly

I can - not long con - tin - ue here, I can - not long con - tin - ue
And still pur - sue the heav'n - ly road, And still pur - sue the heav'n - ly

I can - not long con - tin - ue here, I can - not long con - tin - ue here And this may be my
And still pur - sue the heav'n - ly road, And still pur - sue the heav'n - ly road Nor doubt a hap - py here, I can - not long con - tin - ue here, I can - not long con - tin - ue here And this may road, And still pur - sue the heav'n - ly road, And still pur - sue the heav'n - ly road Nor doubt a here And this may be my last, I can - not long con - tin - ue here And this may be my last.

road Nor doubt a hap - py end, And still pur - sue the heav'n - ly road Nor doubt a hap - py end.

last, end, maybe my last, I can - not long con - tin - ue here And this may be my last.
end, a hap - py end, And still pur - sue the heav'n - ly road Nor doubt a hap - py end.

be my last, maybe my last,
hap - py end, a hap - py end,