

C Major. The Ladies' Garland, 1842, alt.The Norristown Musical Teacher, 1832 (arr. R. W. Hall).

1. We are pass - ing a - way from this beau - ti - ful earth, Our much loved a - bode and the land of our birth;
 2. We are pass - ing a - way from our kin - dred and friends, The last chain that binds us, the spoil - er will rend,

From for - ests and fields and from mur - mur - ing rills, From beau - ti - ful plains and herb - age crown'd hills. hills.
 We'll then sweet - ly rest in the calm - est re - pose, Un - plagu'd by life's cares, and un - pierc'd by its woes. woes.

From for - ests and fields and from mur - mur - ing rills, From beau - ti - ful plains and herb - age crown'd hills. hills.
 We'll then sweet - ly rest in the calm - est re - pose, Un - plagu'd by life's cares, and un - pierc'd by its woes. woes.