Jacob Kimball, 1793.

1. Firm was my health, my day was bright, And I pre - sumed 'twould ne'er be night; Fond-ly I said with-

2. But I for - got thine arm was strong Which made my moun - tain stand so long: Soon as thy face bein my heart: Pleas - ure and peace shall ne'er de - part.

My health was gone, my com - forts died.

Pleas - ure and peace shall ne'er de - part.
My health was gone, my com - forts died.

gan to hide, Pleas - ure and peace shall ne'er de - part.
My health was gone, my com - forts died.

Pleas - ure and peace shall ne'er de - part.
My health was gone, my com - forts died.
