

G Major. John Rippon, 1801.

William C. Davis, 1853 (alto by Kelly Kennedy).

1. The Prince of sal - va - tion is com - ing, pre - pare A way in the des - ert his bless - ings to share;

2. His reign shall ex - tend from the east to the west, Com - pos - ing the tu - mults of na - ture to rest;

3. The brute - heart - ed tem - per of man shall grow tame, The wolf and the li - on lie down with the lamb,

He comes to re - lease us from sin and from woes, And bids the rude wil - derness bloom like the rose. 1. 2. rose.

The dayspring of glo - ry il - lu - mine the skies, And ag - es on ag - es of hap - pi - ness rise. 1. 2. rise.

The bear with the kine shall con - tent - ed - ly feed, While chil - dren their young ones in har - mo - ny lead. 1. 2. lead.