

D Major. John Byrom, 1746.

John Wainwright, 1761.

1. Christians, a - wake! Sa - lute this happy morn Where - on the Savior of this world was born; Rise to a - dore the mys - ter - y of love,
 2. Then to the watchful shepherds it was told, Who heard th' an - gel - ic herald's voice, be - hold, I bring glad tid - ings of a Savior's birth,

1. Christians, a - wake! Sa - lute this hap - py morn Where - on the Savior of this world was born; Rise to a - dore the mys - ter - y of love,
 2. Then to the watchful shepherds it was told, Who heard th' an - gel - ic herald's voice, be - hold, I bring glad tid - ings of a Sav - ior's birth,

Which hosts of an - gels chanted from a - bove; With them the joy - ful tid - ings first be - gun Of God in - carnate and the Vir - gin's Son.
 To you and all the na - tions up - on earth; This day hath God ful - fill'd his promis'd word, This day is born a Sav - ior, Christ the Lord.

Which hosts of an - gels chanted from a - bove; With them the joy - ful tid - ings first be - gun Of God in - carnate and the Vir - gin's Son.
 To you and all the na - tions up - on earth; This day hath God ful - fill'd his promis'd word, This day is born a Sav - ior, Christ the Lord.

